Re:	Call for Contributions: 802.16h-00/10
Abstract	This contribution presents some considerations made by the FCC on license-free equipment authorization, in the U-NII and 2.4 GHz bands. The impact of system design on the relevant rules and considerations of the FCC will be covered. The current state of the FCC rules in these bands will be presented.
Purpose	To consider this regulatory information for PAR development and future work.
